

“The MIA Sellout”

by John Corry
THE AMERICAN SPECTATOR,

“A single paragraph on page 426 of the Senate Select Committee on POW-MIA Affairs Report, for example, says that Jan Sejna, once a Major General in the Czech Army, ‘testified in a deposition and stated in interviews that American POWs were transported to the Soviet Union, transiting Prague.’ Sejna, who now works for the Defense Intelligence Agency, said he knew of as many as ninety POWs were passed on this way from Southeast Asia to Moscow.”

“One week after John Kerry, the chairman of the Senate Committee on the POWs, visited Hanoi last December, Vietnam awarded Colliers International of Boston its commercial real estate deals. Colliers’s CEO, Stuart Forbes, is Kerry’s cousin...It is another Vietnam story the press has missed.”
